A2U2 SHARE THE PLATE

The Share the Plate recipient for July is Maine Needs, which strives to help individuals and families in Maine meet their basic, material needs by providing donated clothing, hygiene products, household items, and other necessities. They focus their work on those starting life over from scratch.

Next Week

On Sunday, July 25, we'll be sharing a service from General Assembly called "Collaboration in Worship During the Pandemic and After." Four Hartford, CT area churches joined in producing the Service "Building Bridges" at last June's GA. They wanted to share their experience working together so that other UU churches could do the same.

Resources: There are many, many people working on climate. Here are a few that I check in with regularly.

Dr. Katherine Hayhoe is a leading climate scientist and science communicator. She hosts Global Weirding on YouTube. She's active on Instagram and Twitter.

Emily Atkin is a climate journalist who is active on Twitter and writes the climate related newsletter, Heated.

David Roberts writes about clean energy and politics on Twitter and writes the newsletter Volts.

Dr. Ayana Elizabeth Johnson is a marine biologist and climate writer. You can find her on Twitter and on the How to Save a Planet podcast. She is a co-editor of the marvelous All We Can Save anthology of writings by women working to combat climate change.

Dr. Katharine Wilkinson and Dr. Leah Stokes host the A Matter of Degrees podcast. They are both active on Twitter.

Dr. Michael Mann is distinguished climate science and author. He's active on Twitter and recently published the important book The New Climate War.
