

Finding Me

Looking Out and Seeing In

Presented by Rick Kimball

Allen Avenue Unitarian Universalist Church

Sunday morning, August 22, 2021

Welcoming Music	The Becoming of A2U2	Churchill
Welcoming Words
Welcoming Gong
Chalice Lighting
Song	Come, Come, Whoever You Are	Rumi/Unger
Reflection	Finding Me
Instrumental Music	Bounce: A Humoresque	Churchill
Reflection	Finding Humor
Choral Music	May Your Life Be As a Song	Scott/Zaritsky
Reflection	Finding Opposites
Song	We Are One	Kimball
Reflection	Finding Creativity
Song	We Sing of Foolishness	Kimball
Reflection	Finding Nonsense
Song	Spirit of Life	McDade
Reflection	Finding Spirituality
Choral Music	Comfort Me	Bornstein-Doble
Closing Words
Closing Music	On Wings of Song	Mendelssohn

Welcome to A2U2

Allen Avenue Unitarian Universalist Church is the latest in a succession of churches shining a liberal religious light over Portland, Maine, since 1821.

Our summer services are generally led by lay members, but in this year of virtual connection we have sometimes joined forces with other UU organizations.

Rick Kimball is a long-time member of A2U2 and its Worship Committee. He offers his thanks to all other service participants, including music director Dale Churchill; song leaders Terri Grover, John Howard, and Amy Murphy; music editors Terri Grover, John Howard, and Joe Seale; members of the A2U2 choir; and digital organizer Erica Bartlett.

Our web address is www.A2U2.org. Our street address is 524 Allen Avenue, Portland, Maine 04103. Our phone number is 207.797.7240.

Our minister is Rev. Donna Dolham (a2u2minister@a2u2.org). Our office administrator is Alice Alexander (office@a2u2.org). Our membership coordinator is Laura Burden (welcome@a2u2.org). Our music director is Dale Churchill (dalechurchill@gmail.com). Our director of religious education is Emily Jones (dre@a2u2.org).

Our Share the Plate recipient for August is Furniture Friends, which provides donated furniture to people in need throughout Greater Portland.